

04 | Module 04 | Unit 02 | Geography

Page 68

1

Answer the following questions.

- 1) What are the British Isles and where are they situated?
- 2) What seas and oceans surround the British Isles?
- 3) Which areas are low and flat?
- 4) Where can you find beautiful rugged mountains?
- 5) Are there large areas of moorland in Great Britain?
- 6) What are the Yorkshire Dales?
- 7) What are the most important mountainous areas in Great Britain?
- 8) Which is the highest peak?
- 9) Which is the longest river?
- 10) Is the Thames more famous than the Severn?
- 11) Where is the Clyde located?
- 12) Where are the most beautiful lakes located?
- 13) How many National Parks are there in Great Britain?

Choose the correct option.

- 1) The Irish landscape is / is not green and lush.
- 2) The Irish landscape is more rugged in the north and west because the coasts are more sheltered / exposed to the full force of the Atlantic Ocean.
- 3) The mountains are located near the parks / coast and concentrated in groups.
- 4) The northern group / southern group comprises the Antrim Plateau and the mountains of Connemara, Mayo and Donegal.
- 5) The longest river is the Shannon / Lough Neagh.
- 6) Lough means river / lake in Irish Gaelic.
- 7) The weather conditions vary / don't vary greatly from day to day.
- 8) The climate is mild / hot because of the warm Gulf Stream from Mexico.
- 9) Severe winters are experienced in south England and Wales / north England and Scotland.
- 10) Ireland has a temperate / very cold climate which is predominantly influenced by the Atlantic Ocean.
- 11) Ireland gets a lot of rain which makes the country a magical garden / emerald green.