

Page 161

Answer the following questions.

- 1) What role does the pub play in the life of British people?
- 2) How many pubs are there in the UK?
- 3) Why do people go to pubs?
- 4) How much beer, on average, do the British drink per year?
- 5) What is the difference between rural and city pubs?
- 6) What do people call their favourite pub located close to their home?
- 7) Can you name three major types of beer?
- 8) Is Guinness called lager?
- 9) What are pubs named after?
- 10) Why is there a sign outside the pub which shows the pub's name with a picture?
- 11) Why is there no waiter service in British pubs?
- 12) How long do most pubs stay open?
- 13) Who says at about 10.50 "Last drink at the bar", "Last orders, please", "Time, gentlemen, please"?
- 14) Where and when did the English pub originate?
- 15) Who established alehouses? And what were they?